

Certificate IV in Building and Construction

National ID: CPC40120 | State ID: BGC0

A career built from the ground up

This qualification will provide you with the practical skills and knowledge to work in building management, production teams and operations workforce to manage and support a small to medium building business dealing with low rise construction projects. Completing this course will help you gain the diverse range of skills needed to project manage the construction of low rise residential and commercial constructions.

Gain these skills

- Plan and supervise construction work
- Prepare, cost and schedule a contract

Your qualification prepares you for roles such as:

Building occupations | Builder Associate

Other para-professional job titles may include:

- Construction Supervisor
- Building Site Manager
- Project Manager (Building/Construction)
- Estimating and Office Administrator
- Facilities and Construction maintenance officer

Further Study Option(s)

Diploma of Building and Construction (Building)

Apply now

Course Overview

Location	Duration	Competitive	Selection criteria
East Perth	One Year	Yes	Academic achievement and work history