

Certificate IV in Surveying and Spatial Information Services

National ID: CPP41721 | State ID: BGI7

Looking to build on your surveying skills?

Equip yourself with the practical skills to support a surveying team by enrolling into the Certificate IV in Surveying and Spatial Information Services. This course is an ideal stepping-stone to further your training in the surveying and spatial information industry. During your studies, you will learn how to use surveying technologies and software to capture, process and present electronic data. You will also have access to surveying equipment in order to produce computer-aided drawings and survey plans so that you can prepare and present Geographic Information System (GIS) data

Practical skills are combined, with important analytical skills like maintaining workplace safety and developing environmentally sustainable methods.

Our lecturers are experts in the field with close ties to industry to ensure our training reflects the latest industry practices.

Your qualification prepares you for roles such as:

Further Study Option(s)

Diploma of Surveying

Advanced Diploma of Surveying

Apply now

Course Overview

Location	Duration	Competitive	Selection criteria
East Perth	One semester	Yes	Academic achievement and work history