Diploma of Information Technology (Advanced Programming)

National ID: ICT50220 | State ID:AC21

Step into a software development career!

Go beyond programming and take a step towards a lasting career in software development. Gain advanced knowledge and valuable experience in an industry- standard learning environment with the latest technology.

Gain these skills:

- develop complex business applications
- gain advanced knowledge of Java, C#, Python
- design and develop SQL and noSQL databases
- use Agile development techniques

All Diploma level studies include: cyber security awareness, working in teams, client management skills, and ethics and privacy.

Your qualification prepares you for roles such as:

Assistant Software Developer, Programmer and Software Applications Specialist

Further Study Option(s)

Successful completion of this course may help you gain entry into university

Apply now

Course Overview

TAFE WA North Metropolitan

Location	Duration	Competitive	Selection criteria
Perth	Two semesters	Yes	Academic achievement and work history