Certificate II in Data and Voice Communications

National ID: UEE20720 | State ID:BFK1

Are you looking for an electronics career and current skills?

When you complete the Certificate II in Data and Voice Communications you'll be flicking the switch on a career in electronics, as a data cabler or telecommunications technician (with additional training).

Gain these skills:

- install and maintain telecommunication cabling
- secure electrotechnological equipment
- assemble and dismantle components
- use cabling drawings
- understand standards, codes and specifications and
- workplace health and safety

It includes ACMA (Australian Communications and Media Authority) requirements for open cabler registration.

Your qualification prepares you for roles such as:

Telecommunications Trades Worker

Further Study Option(s)

Certificate IV in Electronics and Communications

Diploma of Electronics and Communications Engineering

Diploma of Computer Systems Engineering

Apply now

Course Overview

North Metropolitan

Location	Duration	Competitive	Selection criteria
Balga	One semester	Yes	Academic achievement and work history