

Certificate I in Leadership

National ID: 52878WA | State ID: BGR09

Ready to take the lead?

This qualification provides a good stepping stone for going into work and becoming actively involved in the community. It also provides you with employability skills applicable to a range of industries and careers.

You will explore your own skills and how you fit into a team. You will recognise the various roles people can perform within the community, and learn how to build your networks and confidence.

The Certificate I in Leadership is a bridging course for people who need to develop the necessary employability skills which will support their transition to work, further education and community participation. A major component of this course is active participation in a team or community based project, which builds your skills.
