

Diploma of Anaesthetic Technology and Practice

National ID: HLT57921 | State ID: BHJ4

Do you want to be part of a clinical team in a fast-paced environment?

This practical, hands-on course will help you gain the knowledge and skills required to work in a fast-paced, clinical environment.

You will be exposed to a variety of surgical procedures, emergencies and critical care environments. Anaesthetic technicians are typically employed in anaesthetic departments, operating theatres, emergency departments, intensive care and day surgeries.

As an anaesthetic technician you will work in consultation with, and under the direction of an anaesthetists, during the induction, maintenance and emergence phases of anaesthesia. Preparing and maintaining anaesthetic equipment, you will play a critical role in supporting quality health care and safe anaesthetic services within a multidisciplinary team.

Gain these skills

By the end of this course, you'll have gained the skills needed to:

- Prepare, order and maintain anaesthetic equipment and supplies
- Assist anaesthetists during anaesthetic procedures
- Operate equipment used in monitoring patients during anaesthesia
- Assist with airway management
- Monitor patients and be prepared for unexpected events, allergic reactions and anaesthetic emergencies
- Decontaminate, sterilise and dispose of equipment and materials
- Access and prepare medications and monitor response
- Follow infection prevention and control procedures and implement work health and safety policies and procedures
- Communicate and document information

Your qualification prepares you for roles such as:

Anaesthetic Technician

Apply now

Course Overview

Location	Duration	Competitive	Selection criteria
Mount Lawley	Three semesters	Yes	Academic achievement and work history