

Certificate III in Hospitality

National ID: SIT30622 | State ID:BHT5

Make someone's day - hand them a coffee, a canapé or an ice cold drink!

Gain the hands-on experience and the skills you need to work in any location in the hospitality industry such as cafes, bars, clubs or restaurants or as a functions and events team member.

Does your career dream involve building a talent that could take you all over the world?

Hospitality is a service industry where you could be preparing and serving customers their favourite coffee at a local cafe, taking an order at a fine-dining restaurant, welcoming guests to a luxury hotel or working amongst the action of a casino.

Be guided by our lecturers who are industry professionals and learn skills such as how to provide outstanding customer service, prepare hot and cold beverages as well as responsible service of alcohol and how to work effectively in a team.

This course will kick-start your career in hospitality and give you a taste of the industry, providing a pathway to working in restaurants, hotels, clubs, pubs, cafes and casinos. If you're already enjoying a role in hospitality, the course will give you a formally nationally recognised qualification and help grow your current knowledge.

Master hospitality and build a skill for life that can take you anywhere around the globe.

Gain these skills

- Provision of excellent customer service
- Effective team work
