

CUA51015 Diploma of Screen and Media (Radio Broadcasting)

National ID: CUA51015 | State ID:AA94

Get the skills you need to start in the radio industry

Radio is an exciting, dynamic industry, filled with passionate, articulate people. This course will give you the skills to produce or present on your own radio show, entertaining and informing people and becoming a part of their daily lives.

You will develop a wide skillset in all aspects of the radio industry, with commercial and management skills. You will also have a placement in a real radio station our own BOOM Radio giving you a chance to develop industry networks and practical experience.

Your qualification prepares you for roles such as:

Radio presenter | Radio producer | Radio promotions/Tactics coordinator | Assistant Music director | Radio News journalist | Social Media assistant | Production assistant |

Further Study Option(s)

Advanced Diploma of Screen and Media (Radio Broadcasting)

Apply now

Course Overview

| Location | Duration | Competitive | Selection criteria |
|-------------|----------|-------------|-----------------------|
| Leederville | One year | No | No selection criteria |